FORT WORTH—When your long-awaited Paint foal arrives this spring you'll no doubt be taking lots of pictures. And it's likely that you'll be sharing them online with your friends and family. While you're beaming with Paint pride, jump over to aphaonline.org to "Make it Official" by registering your foal with the American Paint Horse Association.

Our user-friendly system has been used by thousands of Paint Horse owners just like you. APHA's online registration process is simple. Easy step-by-step screens help guide you from start to finish. It can even help you locate your Breeder's Certificate Control Number.

Online registration saves you money. Completing your horse's registration through aphaonline.org provides a $15 discount. If you've got multiple foals, that savings adds up quickly.

Online registration also ensures the fastest completion of your horse's Official APHA Registration Certificate. Turnaround times vary, but the average processing time for a registration submitted online is three days.

Pride. Simplicity. Savings. Speed. Strong reasons you should consider using APHA's online registration for your foals this spring to "Make it Official."

Visit aphaonline.org, select "Bronze" on the right, and then choose "Foal Registration" to get started today. Bronze level access is included at no additional charge with your APHA membership.

Our friendly MemberCare team is ready to help, should you have questions or need assistance with the process, by calling 817-222-6423 Monday through Friday, 8 am through 4:30 pm.

APHA opens options to all ages with “NSBA Color of Money” show in conjunction with 2014 AjPHA Youth World Show

By Amy Stapleton | Paint Horse Journal | March 6, 2014

The American Paint Horse Association's newest cooperative venture creates an all ages horse show for colored horses in Fort Worth during the Youth World Show time frame.

The “NSBA Color of Money” show will be held June 24-26 at the Will Rogers Memorial Center, in conjunction with three of the year's largest existing color breed events: the AjPHA Youth World Championship Show, the National Appaloosa Show and the World Championship Appaloosa Youth Show.

The Color of Money is an NSBA-approved show that is open to color breeds only. Entry fees will be jackpotted with a minimum 90% payback. Fifty-three classes will be offered for a wide range of divisions and disciplines—open, amateur and youth.

“We set out to create an event that would give our AjPHA Youth World Show more of a family atmosphere, where everyone can come and compete,” said APHA Senior Director of Shows Holly Slaughter. “With that in mind, we are offering classes for horses of all ages, and exhibitors of all ages and experience levels.”

Per NSBA rules, a color horse is one who is registered with APHA, ApHC, PtHA, PHBA, IBHA, ABRA or POA. If a horse is registered as PtHA solid registered, then it is not considered a color horse unless it is also registered with one or more of the following associations: APHA, ApHC, ABRA, IBRA, PHBA or POA.

The following classes will be offered at the NSBA Color of Money show:

Plan to join the PNPHC for
A great time in the NW!

Minutes:

March 2014 PNPHC Mtg

Breed Show: The show is coming quickly and a lot of last minute plans are being worked out and all coming together.

Lola has talked to Brenda Wood about mailing post cards as advertising and we decided because of the cost that we would compile our own list to email the premiums to. Names that are in the directory that do not have emails will be sent by mail.

- + food plans: Janelle is looking for help to put the food together Saturday.

- + We still are looking for helpers for the show. Please contact Tabitha Whitford or Lola Whitford.

- + Gift bags: there are gift bags being put together for the judges and office staff for the show. Janelle has wine to donate, Marian has wine glasses to put in and there will be some other items.

- + rosettes and hi points have been ordered.

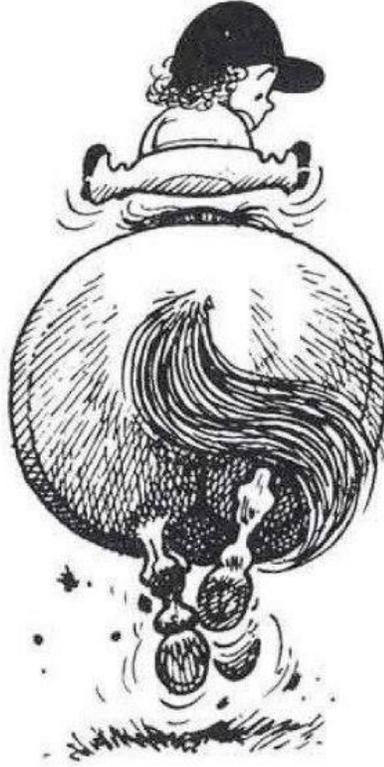

- + Silent auction. There will be a silent auction at the show, we are taking donations for the silent auction table. Also an idea for a fun idea and fundraiser is to have nomination cans for King and Queen of the show. People can put money in a can with a name on it. The can with the most money in it wins!

- + Lola is having troubles finding vendors for the show. If you know of someone please contact Lola.

Next Meeting is April 5th at Royal Star in Mt. Vernon.

THE END

If you have any news such as accomplishments in or out of the horse world, new foals (pictures okay) or anything else you would like in the PNPHC newsletter please email me before about the 25th of each month and I will be glad to include it.
